From Margaret River, to Pemberton, to the regions of the Great Southern, we've grown up and worked amongst the vines. Our knowledge of these regions and relationships with other grape growers enables us to find the best vineyards for each grape variety, and this is what we show with through Ad Hoc.

We've travelled long to find the path of least resistance, enabling us to show you great quality at great value for money.

Ad Hoc are "go-to", dependable wines for any occasion, as characterful as their labels.

2016 Cruel Mistress Pinot Noir

THE VINTAGE:

From Porongurup to Frankland River conditions were excellent throughout the season. The winter and spring lead-up were dry but that eased with good rainfalls during January which brought much needed moisture for vine growth and yields. As a result the wines have great verve and freshness.

THE WINEMAKING:

Sourced from several locations in the Great Southern, the fruit was fermented using a combination of wild fermentation, selected yeasts and 1-3 year old French oak for 6 months prior to bottling.

THE WINE:

The nose shows graphite, minerals and juicy black cherries. A hint of spicy oak plays a supporting role. The palate is softly textured, fresh and vibrant with flavours of black cherry and earthy beetroot. The wine has a soft, silky finish.

DRINK WITH:

Roasted game.
